

Eyes on Asia: Is Opportunity Still Knocking on China's Open Door?

Shaun Roache
Managing Director, Chief Economist, Asia Pacific
S&P Global Ratings

Shaun Roache is the Chief Asia-Pacific Economist at S&P Global Rating. Based in Singapore, he leads the economic research agenda and serves as the primary spokesperson on macro-economic matters across the region.

Before joining S&P Global Ratings, Shaun was the Strategist and Lead Economist at Temasek, a Singapore sovereign wealth fund, covering China, Japan and emerging markets. Before that, Shaun spent 12 years with the International Monetary Fund in Washington, D.C. and Hong Kong, during which time he worked on Brazil and China, and contributed to the IMF's work with the G20. He started his career in the mid-1990s as a market economist with ING Barings and then Citi in London.

Shaun holds a Ph.D. in Economics from Birkbeck College, University of London, and a bachelor's degree in Economics from Queen's University Belfast.

Priscilla Luk
Managing Director, Head of Global Research & Design, Asia Pacific
S&P Dow Jones Indices

Priscilla Luk serves as Managing Director of Global Research & Design, APAC, at S&P Dow Jones Indices (S&P DJI). She is responsible for the conceptualization and design of new indices using a combination of analytical, commercial, and regulatory considerations. Priscilla also regularly publishes research on new and existing products, and represents S&P DJI at media engagements, conferences, and other client events.

Prior to joining S&P DJI in 2012, Priscilla spent over ten years in equity research providing analysis on asset allocation and equity investment strategies. Previously, Priscilla was an Asian equity strategist with Deutsche Bank AG and also served as a partner and the director of research at First Horse Capital, a global equity hedge fund management company. Prior to this, Priscilla worked as global and Asian strategist at Mirae Asset Securities.

Priscilla also worked as a global equity strategist and Asian equity strategist at Citigroup Global Markets. She joined Citigroup from CLSA Asia Pacific Markets where she was a quantitative research analyst.

Priscilla started her career in the quantitative research division at Credit Suisse in 2001. Priscilla graduated with a B.Sc. in Quantitative Finance from the Chinese University of Hong Kong.

Laura Lui
Partner & Co-Chief Investment Officer
Premia Partners

Laura Lui is a Partner and co-Chief Investment Officer of Premia Partners. Laura has rich experience in the financial industry in index and quantitative investments, and capital markets development. Prior to Premia Partners, Laura led the Index and Quantitative Investment team at ICBC Credit Suisse International and was responsible for all aspects of the firm's index and quantitative investment business. Before that, Laura was the Head of ETF and Index Team at Mirae Asset Global Investments (HK). Earlier in her career, Laura has also gained extensive trading experience on multi-asset derivatives and other listed products in Asian market including ETF trading and market-making from her previous roles with RBS and JPMorgan Chase Bank.

Laura has an Honours BSc degree in Actuarial Science and Statistics from the University of Toronto, and a MS degree in Global Finance from New York University and Hong Kong University of Science and Technology.

Wang Yi
Senior Executive Director, Head of Quantitative Investment
CSOP Asset Management

Wang Yi is Senior Executive Director and Head of Quantitative Investment at CSOP Asset Management. He is mainly responsible for investment strategy design and fund managers selection for institutional clients. Prior to this, he was Head of Risk Management/Client Solution Group.

Before joining CSOP Asset Management in 2016, he served as Senior Vice President in ALM and Investment Strategy team, focusing on investment consultancy business for UK and European pension funds and insurance companies.

Wang Yi graduated from UCL with BSc in Mathematics and Cass Business School with MSc in Actuarial Science and is a CFA charterholder.